

Contents

EDITORIAL

ABBREVIATIONS

SPECIAL ISSUE: THOMAS DE QUINCEY'S CONFESSIONS AT 200

- 1 Editors' Introduction | Brecht de Groote, Tim Fulford, and Matthew Sangster
- 3 De Quincey Now: A Foreword | Robert Morrison
- 9 Suspended Life | Margaret Russett
- 27 Associationism, Self-Formation, and the Pursuit of Happiness in De Quincey's Early Writings | Daniel S. Roberts
- 39 Fountains and Night Fears: Lamb, De Quincey, and Childhood in the London Magazine | Felicity James
- 53 De Quincey's Co-Ontological Sleep: Electra's Kindness as a Way beyond 'Dog Sleep' and Nightmare | Nick Dodd
- 65 'I cannot muster a fiddle': De Quincey, Lamb, Opium, and Addiction | Peter J. Kitson
- 75 'Arrayed for Mutual Slaughter': Warfare and Moral Action in De Quincey's Later Essays | Daniel Cook

REVIEWS

- 87 The New Cambridge Companion to Coleridge, edited by Tim Fulford | Anya Taylor
- 97 In Xanadu: Gedichte Englisch/Deutsch, edited and translated by Florian Bissig, & Samuel Taylor Coleridge: Eine Biografie, by Florian Bissig | Christoph Bode
- 101 Chinese Dreams in Romantic England: The Life and Times of Thomas Manning, by Edward Weech | Serena Qihui Pei
- 107 Look Round for Poetry: Untimely Romanticisms, by Brian McGrath | D. B. Ruderman
- 113 Romantic Actors, Romantic Dramas: British Tragedy on the Regency Stage, by James Armstrong | Julie Carlson

- 117 Coleridge and the Geometric Idiom: Walking with Euclid, by Ann C. Colley | Catherine Ross
- 121 “Genial” Perception: Wordsworth, Coleridge, and the Myth of Genius in the Long Eighteenth Century, by William Edinger | Jacob Risinger
- 125 Romanticism and the Rule of Law: Coleridge, Blake, and the Autonomous Reader, by Mark L. Barr | Richard Ian Berkeley
- 133 Down to the Sunless Sea: A Troubled Samuel Taylor Coleridge in the Mediterranean, by Andrew and Suzanne Edwards | Barry Hough

CONTRIBUTORS